

Jigsaw Medical is looking for...

Freelance Driving Instructors

We are on the search for freelance driving instructors to join #TeamJigsaw.

At Jigsaw Medical we believe in people being at the heart of our success, we are proud of our creative and positive working environment and strive to make sure our team enjoys coming to work.

Our foundations are built on transparent and collaborative working from board level to each area of our business. We are here to provide the best possible services to our clients, candidates, and patients, whether that be clinical to patients at events, NHS Hospitals, ambulance trusts, our clients or our training candidates.

Our driving instructors will work directly for us and take responsibility for the education, training and assessment of drivers of emergency and non-emergency vehicles. We are committed to delivering a focused, professional and brand-compliant service to both internal staff and commercial clients.

We would expect these position holders to champion our core values and convert this into industry leading driver education, developing our training division from its well-established roots, into a gold-standard, broad education establishment.

- Full GB/ EU driving licence (minimum 3yrs)
- Legacy IHCD D1/ D2 and Driver Training Qualification or FutureQuals Certificate in Emergency Response Ambulance Driving
- FutureQuals Diploma for Emergency Response Ambulance Driving Instruction or Edexcel Ambulance Driving Instructor
- Certificate in Assessing Vocational Achievement (CAVA) or equivalent
- ADI Parts 1 & 2
